Together we can make this Raffle a huge success!!!

Brighton Fundraising Policy

Fundraising is absolutely crucial at Brighton Academy. All families are required to fulfill the individual fund raising goals set (minimum of $125 per student in Shopping Bonanza raffle ticket sales & minimum of $125 per student in Jog-A-Thon pledges) as well as attend these events or volunteer in their planning and execution.

Sick Student Policy:

We ask all families to follow these basic guidelines and avoid sending sick students to school:

- Do not send your student to school if they have had a fever in the past 24 hours.
- If your child experiences a new cough or sore throat please keep them home.
- Children who experience diarrhea or vomiting should remain home until they are healthy (at least 24 hours after the last episode)

Scholastic Book Orders

The Scholastic book program is a great way to support your student's classroom while buying from a wide range of outstanding books and materials. Look for order forms in October, December and March!

Are You a Fred Meyer Customer?

Brighton Academy receives a quarterly check from Fred Meyer. This is such an easy way to support your child's school. Please take a minute to follow the link below and activate your Fred Meyer card. Whenever you use your Rewards Card, you'll be helping Brighton Academy earn a donation. To link your card go to:
